

Building Project Awaits Approval Of Works Board

Will Be Brought Up
Before Washington
P. W. A. Soon

PLAN 11 BUILDINGS

By HOWARD WILCOX

Municipal university moved a step nearer the reality of a new campus last Saturday when the state public works advisory board at Fremont approved the university's application for federal aid.

The plan outlined by the board of regents providing that the United States government should erect buildings and lease them to the regents, needs only to be approved by the PWA at Washington before work on the project will be started. It is not certain when the plan will come up before the federal board.

Civic Organizations Approve

Dr. W. E. Sealock, president of the university, believes the application will meet with no difficulty in Washington.

"The federal government is concerned mainly with the social usefulness of the project and the structural soundness of the plans. We are confident that our proposition qualifies in both respects.

"If we do find it necessary, we can ask local organizations to support our plan by writing to Washington and recommending it. Congressman E. R. Burke is very much for us."

Second and third prizes in the contest were German novels. Twenty three students entered the competition. Mrs. Ida Seesko is the wife of Reverend F. W. Seesko of the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Benson.

Local Labor Unions Approve Municipal U. Building Proposal

See Opportunity To Provide Employment For Omaha Workers

Labor unions in Omaha are supporting the Municipal university's new campus project, according to Dr. W. E. Sealock, president of the university. The new buildings as planned will offer more jobs for skilled labor than any other local construction that has applied for help from the government under the public works act.

Ernest A. Bowerman, president of the Omaha Carpenters' District Council, voiced his interest in the plan in a recent letter to President Sealock. A part of the letter read:

"At this time we are deeply interested in the University because of the need of work of constructing the new buildings for the University as proposed by those who have charge, and who are asking the PWA to finance, that we may put some of our idle mechanics and laborers to work to relieve the present intolerable conditions that exist here."

German Club To Hold Meeting Next Monday

The German club will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday noon at the Science Hall.

Miss Bertha Mueller, German instructor is sponsor of the club.

Cardinals Meet Chadron Normal Thanksgiving Day For Conference Title; Play Neb. Wesleyan Today

Omaha Favored to Win
Over Plainsmen By Wide Margin

BEGINS AT 2:15

Nebraska Wesleyan's footballers will attempt to halt the Omaha university scoring spree of the past two weeks when they take the field against the Cardinals at Western League park this afternoon at 2:15.

Coach John Roberts, former Omaha university grid star, expects his Plainsmen to be in top form for the Omaha tussle. A number of former Cotner stars will be in the starting lineup against Coach Sed Hartman's men.

Plainsmen Have Varied Record
The Nebraska Wesleyan eleven is at present tied for first place in the Nebraska Church conference with Hastings. The Thanksgiving game between the two schools will decide the championship just as the Omaha-Chadron battle will decide the championship of the Nebraska Intercollegiate conference on the same day.

The Plainsmen have an in-and-out record, defeating Doane, 18 to 9; York, 20 to 6; Midland, 12 to 0; and losing to Wayne, 7 to 6; Peru, 13 to 0; Kansas Wesleyan, 13 to 0 and tying Nebraska B, 0 to 0.

Larry Hall Likely To Be Out
Coach Hartman's choice for the starting lineup is likely to be Elmer Ossian, Don Minikus or Leon Fouts, ends; Howard and Norman Sorensen, tackles; Noel King and Myrl Mc-

"Every Man Has Right To A Job," E. Reed Tells Class

"Every man has a right to a job. If private industry cannot supply one the government should," stated Mr. Eli Reed, secretary of the National Monetary league, before Dr. J. H. Rhoads' business administration class Tuesday morning. His topic was "Money and Inflation."

Mr. Reed pointed out that there is a public and private debt in the United States of $230,000,000,000 which cannot be repaid. He is opposed to inflation and the present monetary program. We are trying to borrow ourselves out of debt, he said.

Mrs. Gaffney To Leave For New York City Tonite

Shower, Dinner Given By Women In Honor Of
Asst. Librarian

Honoring Mrs. W. F. Gaffney, assistant librarian, who has resigned and will leave for New York tonight, a handkerchief shower and a surprise dinner were held Wednesday noon and Thursday evening. The shower was sponsored by the W. A. A., and the dinner was tendered by the Bums' Club, faculty women's organization. Girls who work in the library presented Mrs. Gaffney with a copy of "Anthony Adverse," in the editorial department of the American Book company, New York City.

"We are very sorry to see Mrs. Gaffney go," stated Miss Inez Chestnut, head librarian, Thursday. "Coming in at the time the library began to expand rapidly, Mrs. Gaffney has done extremely fine work in cataloging the new books and recataloging the old ones."

Mrs. Gaffney joined the library staff in 1931 after completing a course in library work at Columbia University.

Beta Pledge Dance Thanksgiving Eve

The Beta Tau Kappa pledge dance will be held in Jacobs Hall Thanksgiving Eve, November 29, at 9 p. m. Following school regulations, couples only will be admitted. One hundred and fifty bids have been distributed. Gustav Hershman, '37, pledge president, is in charge of affairs.

It was incorrectly stated in last week's Gateway that there were five sororities and three fraternities. There are four fraternities, Beta Tau Kappa being organized this year.

Out of the far northwestern part of the state will come Coach Rufus Trapp's Chadron Normal footballers. Thanksgiving day primed to defeat Omaha university's pigskin artists on the Western League park gridiron and thus carry back with them the coveted Nebraska Intercollegiate conference championship for 1933.

When the Cardinals and Eagles clash, both elevens will boast an undefeated record in conference competition. Both at present share the lead in the N. I. A. A. Chadron's season record shows one defeat, that a 19 to 0 loss at the hands of the University of Colorado. The Colorado outfit set back Utah, Rocky Mountain conference leaders since 1927, last Saturday.

On comparative scores in loop play, Chadron appears to have the more impressive victories. The Eagles trounced Wayne, 21 to 7, while Omaha

Girls' Pep Club Makes Appearance At Football Game

Topnotchers Sponsored by Gym Teacher; To Meet Today

Thirty Topnotchers wearing the Cardinal topnotch made their debut at last Friday's football game with Doane at Western League Park.

The Topnotchers is the new girls' pep club organized by Miss Virginia Woolfolk, gym instructor, and a group of W. A. A. girls. Maxine Steinecamp, '36, and Amy Bohacek, '37, are the cheer leaders.

Elect Officers Today

Membership in the Topnotchers is not limited to W. A. A. members, Miss Woolfolk stated. She is eager to have a large number of girls join the organization before the next game. The red tams worn at the game may be bought for fifty cents at her office.

The Topnotchers are meeting in the gym at noon today to elect officers. They have been given authority to form a permanent organization and plan to draw up a constitution and apply for a charter soon.

Larry Hall, Halfback, Breaks Collar-Bone

Larry Hall, Municipal university grid regular, suffered a broken collar-bone in practice scrimmage Tuesday and is probably lost to the Chad team for the remainder of the season. This is Hall's last year at the university. He plays halfback.

WILL YOUR CLASSES MEET HERE NEXT YEAR?

Here is an artist's conception of the front view, of the liberal arts building, one of four the government will build for the university if the Public Works Administration board in Washington agrees. Eleven structures are called for in the plans for a new campus, but only four would be erected immediately.

This building will be 240 feet long. Two wings in the back will contain the auditorium and library. The front part will be used for classrooms. The three other buildings proposed—a science hall, gymnasium, and heating plant—will be to the right of this one. The four buildings will cost $900,000.

REVISION NEEDED

SINCE it has been possible, in institutions of highest education, to revolutionize old systems and simplify teaching, why has it not been also possible in the grade and high schools; the Omaha World-Herald asks in an editorial in the Sunday, October 29 edition.

There is no good reason why this cannot be done in grade and high schools. Municipal university along with several other universities has accomplished this. An educational revolution can be carried out in grade and high schools as well as in universities.

Ours is a rapidly changing world. What was good a generation ago, or only five years back, may not, and probably isn't, the best thing today. Grade and high schools have been slow to realize this.

Grade and high school courses need a thorough study followed by a drastic revision. Many courses now being offered can be eliminated, others can be drastically revised to fit the needs of the modern student. This has been done at Municipal university. Though the enrollment is greater than any time in the past, fewer courses are being offered now than the year previous to its being turned into a municipal institution. This has resulted in reducing University expenses. It can do the same for grade and high schools.

School income has been pared considerably in the past four years. Teachers have borne more than their share of salary reductions. For the next few years at least, however, school income will fall short of that of more prosperous times. Educators can meet this situation only by drastically overhauling the curriculum.

Municipal University has set the example in this section. Let others follow.

MOVING FORWARD

With only the approval of the public works board at Washington to be secured, Municipal university students can well be pleased with the progress the new buildings project is making.

Though it has moved slowly during the past three months it now appears as though work on the new buildings will be underway before winter is over.

The speed with which the broken glass of the burner's door was replaced left a number of people in a daze, especially those who have classes in room 14.

Says There Is A Depression Going On

Missing many various articles from the locker room, can it be that there is a group of men in this school who like to borrow things but have an elapse of memory and the returning part is forgotten? Many of those who have lost their gym clothes have said their lockers were locked. Thus upon entering their locker the missing is missed. It would greatly be appreciated if those who have this elapse will come too and find out that there is a depression going on. But all of this is probably for naught. So the least we can hope is that all of the missing do not fit, etc.

ha was held to a 6 to 6 tie. Against Peru, the Chadron team walloped the Bobcats, 22 to 0, as contrasted with Omaha's 13 to 0 win. Coach Trapp's men spilled Kearney, 17 to 3, and the best Omaha could do was a 6 to 0 victory in the several chances it had to tally.

Barring injuries in the Nebraska Wesleyan contest Friday, Coach Hartman's aggregation should be in top form with the possible exception of Larry Hall, varsity halfback and main blocking back on the Cardinal squad, who is nursing a broken shoulder blade received in a scrimmage November 21. If Hall is unable to play, the Omaha team will be considerably weakened for the Cardinals have often remarked "as the blocking goes, so goes the team."

Last Game For 5 Oards

Chadron will have four big guns that will bear watching. All are men who faced the Omahans at Chadron last season. They are Christensen, halfback who is a neat punter; Mantalica, quarterback; Montague, fullback; and Miller, 200 and some odd pound tackle.

Five Omaha stars will close their career in the Eagle game. They are Larry Hall of Malvern, Ia.; Carl Johnson, guard and tackle, of Bloomfield, Neb.; Elmer Ossian, end, of Stanton, Ia.; Leon Fouts, end, of Omaha; and Lowell Fouts, center, of Omaha.

The contest is slated to start at 2:15.

Probable starting lineups:

Omaha	Chadron
Leon Fouts LG	Eschenbrenner
H. Sorensen LT	Miller
Hummel LG	Dodd
Lowell Fouts O	Laird
King RG	Carroll
N. Sorensen RT	Moody
Ossian RE	Wells
Hoover QB	Mantalica
Nelson LB	Christensen
Bransley RB	Wakeman
Pearey FB	Montague

Card Gridders Hand Doane 52-6 Pasting

The Cardinals coasted to a 52 to 6 victory over Doane last Friday at League Park. Leo Pearey scored the first touchdown when he spun over right guard and raced 62 yards on the first play of the game. The score at the end of the half was 25 to 0.

Doane made a touchdown in the fourth quarter on a series of passes. Kobes, left end, played best for Doane. For Omaha, McKean stood out at guard, while Neil Huff, reserve quarter, played well in the backfield.

Omaha's reserve team played most of the game. The Cards made 22 first downs and gained 494 yards from scrimmage, while Doane made 10 first downs and 34 yards from scrimmage.

Mrs. Gearhart reviewed Hervey Allen's recent novel, "Anthony Adverse." George Thatcher read selections from the works of James Meikle. The books were published in 1818 and were originally the property of Mr. Thatcher's great-great-grandfather.

Refreshments were served and copies of "The Little Grub", the organization news-letter, were distributed.

German Paper Praises Declamatory Contest

Miss Bertha Mueller, instructor of German, gave an inspiring presentation in the declamatory contest of her students Thursday evening, said Thea Moeller-Herms in an article in the Omaha German Tribune November 17.

"We followed with greatest interest the presentations of the students. Almost every one of the young people deserved a prize if one considered the circumstances.

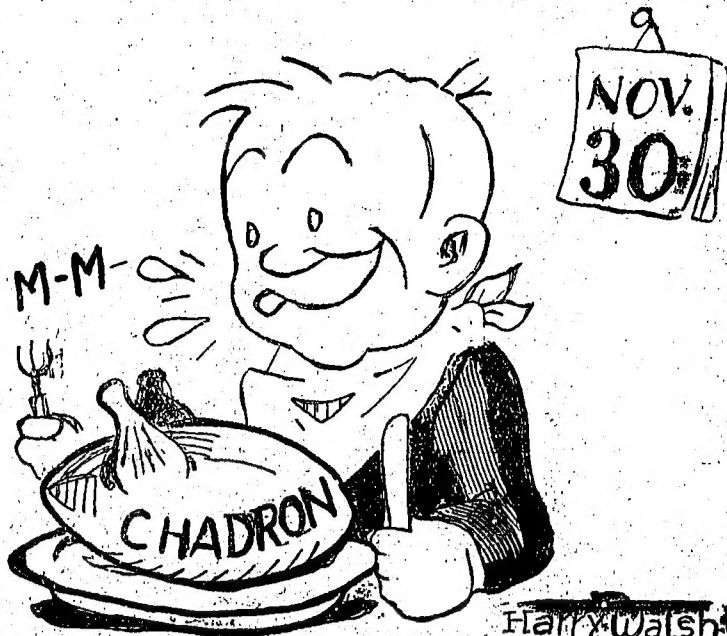

"Mr. Val J. Peter, in his address, expressed his joy at the earnestness and conscientiousness with which all the participants presented their parts, and although this did not bring each of them a prize, we wish at least at this time to extend a special word of praise and acknowledgment."

BUILDING PLANS AWAIT APPROVAL OF BOARD

The four buildings that will be constructed immediately if the plan goes through will be of a modified classic style of architecture, according to Frank Latenser, architect. There will be a liberal arts building, containing class rooms, auditorium, and library; a science building; a gymnasium; and a heating plant. About twenty tennis courts and four parking zones are being planned.

The complete plan, to be carried out as the enrollment increases, calls for eleven buildings. A separate library building, a women's building, a fine arts building, a second science hall, a stadium, and two other buildings may be added to the original four.

CHAIR SKELETON OF RARE SPECIES

Most people keep their skeletons in the family closet. The university biology department does not. Its skeleton is exposed to all eyes in the main hall of Science building.

Whether these particular bones ever supported human form is questionable. In the dim dark past some morbid osteologist fashioned them into the semblance of a chair. I say semblance, for how could this macabre monstrosity ever fulfill the comforting and noble purpose of a chair.

What weary soul from Joslyn hall could rest his travel-tired body in this devil-inspired contraption? What aspiring student of biology could cram for a test on evolution while sitting on the knobby bones of a probable ancestor?

What strange commentary will be made on this generation when some future scientist discovers the osseous formation. To what species will it be assigned?

Each year the board of regents grant eight scholarships to graduates of Omaha high schools.
